This Christmas pipe brings to an end the 12-year theme 'The Nutcracker and the Mouse King', which began in 2011 and ends now in 2022.

It is based on the characters of the children's book 'The Nutcracker and the Mouse King' by German author Ernst Theodor Amadeus Hoffmann and the famous ballet 'The Nutcracker' by Russian composer Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky.

This being the 12th pipe in the series, it depicts the Fortress of Sweets.

The pipe is a classic group 4 Bent pipe (4102) in Shell Briar finish. It features a solid SterlingSilver Army mount that has been hand-shaped to a Tulip pattern.

The impressive pipe tamper is 58.5 mm long and crafted from solid Sterling Silver. It depicts in great one of the towers of the Fortress of Sweets.

The highly collectable White Spot Christmas pipes and tampers are presented in a leather-bound book held in attractive blue & red colours with gold embossing to represent the uniform of the Nutcracker. Each set is accompanied by its numbered limited edition certificate.

This edition series is strictly limited to annually only 300 pipes worldwide.
