FEATURES

Tribute to the captivating universe of 20,000 leagues under the seas, this limited edition expresses all the know-how of S.T. Dupont. Published in 1870, the novel recounts the journey of three castaways captured by Captain Nemo, this mysterious inventor who travels the seabed aboard the Nautilus, submarine very ahead of the technologies of the time. Portholes, turbines, corals, fins and other tentacles of giant squid inspire this limited edition and its three ranges, all related to different chapters of the book. A story in three stages in which to dive with passion. 'Vanikoro' is named after its pattern 'corals'. In the chapter of the same name, Captain Nemo and his three companions dock on the island of Vanikoro, surrounded by an incredible barrier reef. Briquet Biggy in shiny blue lacquer, with the Vanikoro decoration. Chrome finish. Equipped with a 2 cm blue torch flame, ideal for lighting candles or cigarettes.
