Made in England (made in 2025)

Pipe tamper made of solid silver

Free gift wrapping is included

This Christmas pipe continues the 7-year theme and series 'The Happy Prince', which began in 2023 and will end in 2029.

It is based on the characters of the (children's) book 'The

Happy Prince and Other Tales' written in 1888 by the Irish poet, playwright and author Oscar Wilde (Oscar Fingal

O'Flahertie Wills Wilde) (born 16 October 1854 in Dublin/Ireland, died 30 November 1900 in Paris/France).

This being the 3rd pipe in the series, it is themed

The Seamstress and her little Boy.

The pipe is a classic group 5 Bent Apple pipe (5113) in Shell

Briar finish with taper mouthpiece. It features an engraved Sterling Silver band.

The delicate pipe tamper is 65 mm long and crafted from solid Sterling Silver. It represents in great detail the sewing needle and thread, the essential tools of craft of the seamstress.

The highly collectable White Spot Christmas pipes and tampers are presented in a leather-bound book in elegant cream marble design. Each set is accompanied by its numbered limited edition certificate.

This edition series is strictly limited to annually only 300 pipes worldwide.
