The Ashton brand is synonymous with excellence in the British pipe-making tradition. Founded in 1983 by Bill Ashton-Taylor, after 17 years of experience at Dunhill, the brand stands out for its high-quality craftsmanship while preserving classic English standards.

This Ashton Pebble Grain XX pipe features a refined straight billiard sandblasted finish, enhancing the natural structure of the briar with an elegant, textured effect. The medium-sized bowl offers a balanced and versatile smoking experience, suitable for both shorter and longer sessions. The substantial silver band adds a touch of prestige and durability, while the ebonite stem ensures comfort, flexibility, and a pleasant feel when held between the teeth.

An ideal choice for enthusiasts and collectors seeking a high-end English pipe that perfectly combines tradition, aesthetics, and impeccable performance.
