Handcrafted Italian Francesco Ganci Collection pipe - reimagined Dublin shape

This handmade pipe from Liguria, Italy, is crafted by artisan Francesco Ganci and belongs to his highest "Collection" grade, representing excellence in craftsmanship and carefully selected briar.

The model is a refined reinterpretation of the classic Dublin shape, redesigned with a contemporary approach featuring elegant lines and balanced proportions. The generously sized bowl ensures a long and consistent smoke, while the flat shank with a rhomboid cross-section adds character and uniqueness to the design, improving both balance and grip.

The pipe is enhanced by a galalite accent band, a refined material that adds a bright and elegant transition between shank and stem. The stem is made of cumberland, durable and comfortable, distinguished by its warm, variegated tones that further elevate the overall aesthetic.

Medium to large in size, this piece stands out for its uniform 360-degree flame grain that fully embraces the bowl, a clear sign of top-grade briar selection and meticulous workmanship.
