Caminetto Rusticated Group 8 Pipe

The Caminetto pipe is one of the most recognized expressions of Italian pipe-making tradition, born in 1968 in Cucciago (Como) from the expertise of master pipemakers Peppino Ascorti and Luigi Radice. Today, the brand remains synonymous with high-quality craftsmanship, attention to detail, and timeless style.

This medium-sized Rusticata model features a classic full bent

Billiard shape, appreciated for its comfortable smoking experience and balanced aesthetics. The light rusticated briar finish enhances the natural texture of the wood, giving the pipe an authentic, slightly “aged” appearance typical of fine artisanal craftsmanship.

The smooth rim creates an elegant contrast with the rusticated body, enhancing the design with a subtle and refined detail. The slightly elongated saddle stem in acrylic adds harmony to the curved lines of the pipe while providing comfort and a touch of modern elegance.

Each Caminetto pipe is the result of an Italian manufacturing tradition that combines expertise, carefully selected briar, and meticulous craftsmanship at every stage of production.
