The Valbruna handcrafted pipe, signed by Italian pipemaker Simone Gaudenzi, represents excellence in Italian briar craftsmanship. The artisan, trained at the prestigious Pesaro pipe-making school and active for over twenty years, creates unique pipes that combine technical skill, experience, and aesthetic sensitivity.

This model is a refined interpretation of the classic Straight Apple shape, featuring generous dimensions that ensure excellent bowl capacity and a long, satisfying smoking experience. The design stands out for its distinctive pentagonal shank, a unique element that gives the pipe strong character and individuality.

The smooth natural finish highlights the authentic beauty of the briar wood, enhancing its grain with a warm, elegant, and timeless appearance. Every detail is carefully crafted according to the highest standards of Italian artisanal tradition.

The ebonite mouthpiece ensures comfort in the mouth, durability, and a pleasant feel during use, contributing to a smooth and well-balanced smoking experience.
