This handcrafted pipe is made in Casalbordino, Abruzzo, by pipe maker Nicola Pirocco. For its creation, carefully selected Ligurian briar is used, sourced from the historic sawmills of Mimmo Romeo, a name synonymous with quality and tradition in the industry.

The model is a reinterpretation of the classic Bulldog shape, presented in a straight version, slightly chubby and compact. The short and full proportions give the pipe a solid yet harmonious appearance, while still ensuring excellent ergonomics in the hand.

The bowl is generously sized and features a slightly tapered drilling.

The mouthpiece is entirely handmade from a rod of Cumberland, a premium material that ensures comfort, durability, and a warm, natural aesthetic. The acrylic band creates an elegant chromatic contrast with the dark finish of the briar, further enhancing the overall design.

The combination of the deep tone of the wood, the Cumberland mouthpiece, and the bright accent of the band gives this pipe a strong and distinctive identity, an authentic expression of contemporary Italian craftsmanship.
