Chacom Skipper 703 Pipe: Nautical Elegance and Billiard Style

The Chacom Skipper 703 is a pipe with timeless charm, drawing inspiration from the nautical world. This interpretation of the classic

Billiard shape combines structural sturdiness with refined details, making it a standout piece for any smoker who appreciates a modern take on "Old Port" style.

Chacom: The Excellence of Saint-Claude

The Chacom brand is the guardian of the French pipe-making tradition. Located in Saint-Claude, the world's cradle of briar, the company has been producing pipes since 1825. The Skipper series perfectly embodies the brand's philosophy: merging historic high-craftsmanship with a contemporary and sophisticated design.

Design and Finish: The Skipper Series

The Skipper series is distinguished by a unique and sought-after color palette:

- Matte Brown Finish: The briar is finished in a deep matte brown, giving the pipe a sober, technical look that is pleasant to the touch and resistant to daily wear.
- Brass Details: The focal point of the design is the double brass band located between the shank and the stem. This bright detail evokes the polished brass fittings of vintage nautical instruments.
- Marbled Stem: The tapered mouthpiece is crafted from marbled brown acrylic. Its swirling patterns echo the warm tones of the wood, ensuring both comfort and a brilliance that will not fade over time.

Technical Features and Versatility

- Shape 703 (Billiard): This model is characterized by a robust circular shank, which perfectly balances the spacious bowl and ensures a solid, secure feel.
- 9mm Filter System with Adapter: The Chacom Skipper 703 offers maximum flexibility. It is bored for a 9mm filter but includes an original adapter, allowing you to smoke without a filter depending on your preference.
- Bowl and Drilling: The medium-sized bowl with a cylindrical bore ensures a constant draw and an even burn, ideal for fully tasting every tobacco blend.

Why choose the Chacom Skipper 703?

Choosing a Skipper means opting for a pipe with character. The combination of polished brass, the marbled stem, and the matte briar makes it an elegant yet sturdy smoking companion—perfect for both quiet moments of relaxation and daily outdoor use.
