Radice Silk Cut Pipe - Red Sandblasted Pot

The Radice Silk Cut pipe. This model is a classic interpretation of the Pot shape.

Aesthetics, Finish, and Functionality

The pipe features a fine sandblasted finish in a bright red hue, designed to enhance and reveal the natural texture of the deep briar.

Beyond its pure visual impact, the design of this model offers a structural advantage highly valued in daily use: the flat bottom of the bowl grants the pipe excellent stability on any flat surface. This characteristic, which essentially makes it a "sitter," seamlessly blends traditional aesthetics with practicality during breaks.

Bowl Architecture and Technical Specifications

While falling into a medium overall size with a generous outer diameter, the internal proportions are carefully calibrated:

- Bowl: Features a medium-to-small capacity, ideal for shorter smoking sessions or for tobaccos that benefit from a more compact combustion chamber.
- Internal Engineering: The bottom of the bowl is characterized by a slightly conical drilling.
- Stem: Crafted from standard high-gloss black acrylic. The tapered profile ensures clean lines and a smooth transition from the shank, while offering excellent wear resistance and comfort on the palate.

Within the official Radice shape chart, this model represents a recurring form that has always enjoyed the consistent appreciation of collectors and smokers alike.
