L'Anatra dalle Uova d'Oro Scottanaso Rusticated Pipe – Compact Chubby

The L'Anatra dalle Uova d'Oro pipe, crafted in the famous artisan district of Pesaro, is a prime example of how the Italian manufacturing tradition masterfully reinterprets shapes with originality and technical rigor. This specific model belongs to the renowned Scottanaso grading, a line historically esteemed for its pocket-sized, collected proportions.

Chubby Silhouette: Compactness and Volume

The design is developed on a compact and short Chubby silhouette. This particular geometry concentrates the volumes into a contained length, offering a pipe that is extremely easy to handle and convenient to carry, without compromising on the generous dimensions of the bowl.

- The Chamber and Wall Thickness: Despite the reduced overall length of the body, the chamber offers a good capacity, perfect for complete and satisfying smoking sessions. The walls of the head are remarkably robust: the generous thickness of the briar acts as a natural thermal insulator, keeping the pipe cool in the hand even during more intense combustion. The internal drilling is cylindrical.*
- The Rusticated Finish: The surface is worked with a deep, textured artisan rustication, which provides an excellent tactile grip and a strong aesthetic personality, while also aiding in heat dissipation.*

Premium Details on the Shank

- The Band: The shank features a finely crafted silver and acrylic band. This insert not only strengthens the structure at the mortise join but also breaks up the pipe's color line, adding an elegant touch of light.*

Stem and Maker's Mark

- Material and Profile: Crafted from polished black acrylic—an unalterable material that does not undergo oxidation—it features a tapered (conical) line that flows into a slightly fishtail bit termination.*
- The Inlaid Logo: On the top of the stem is the iconic duck head mark. In this specific model, the logo is not applied in relief, but is finely inlaid within a colored acrylic disk, a smooth-to-the-touch detail of micro-craftsmanship.*
