The Big Ben Spectrum 555 Black Polish 9mm Bent briar pipe perfectly unites traditional European factory-made reliability with a sleek, ultra-modern aesthetic. Cut into the highly balanced and uniform 555 shape, this piece offers a superb machine-turned interpretation of the classic bent silhouette, engineered to provide an effortless, hands-free clench and a comfortable center of gravity.

The signature Black Polish finish completely dresses the briar in a dense, high-gloss black lacquer that reflects light with a mirror-like sheen, emphasizing the clean, minimalist contours of the bowl. Performance-wise, the shank is specifically designed to accommodate a 9mm absorbent filter, making it the ideal choice for enthusiasts seeking an exceptionally smooth, cool, and clean smoking experience. Its standardized construction offers reliable heat dispersion, while the internal airway is drilled with mathematical precision to guarantee a completely unrestricted and uniform draft.
