Peder Jeppesen Ida Boutique Gr.4 Bent Freehand Danish Handmade Pipe

Danish handmade pipe crafted by Peder Jeppesen and belonging to the Ida Boutique Gr.4 selection, a grade reserved for pieces distinguished by their aesthetic quality, craftsmanship, and briar selection. Peder Jeppesen is regarded as one of the most respected representatives of the modern Danish pipe-making tradition; founder of the Neerup brand, he has developed a distinctive personal style.

This model features a medium-to-large bent freehand shape, an expression of the Scandinavian freehand tradition.

The upper rim of the bowl has been left with a bark top finish, a detail that creates a textural contrast with the smooth surfaces of the pipe's body.

The bowl, generously sized and drilled with a cylindrical chamber, offers substantial tobacco capacity and a geometry designed to promote an even burn. Its medium-to-large dimensions provide a strong visual presence while maintaining the overall balance of the shape.

The stem is made of black acrylic and fitted with a fishtail bit, a solution appreciated for its comfort, practicality, and durability over time. Completing the design is a decorative band composed of colored acrylic and worked silver, an element that adds character and refinement to the pipe's appearance.

This Peder Jeppesen Ida Boutique Gr.4 represents a synthesis of Danish craftsmanship, functionality, and artistic expression, with construction details that highlight the care devoted to each individual piece and the stylistic identity of its maker.
