Valbruna Rusticata 2 Jellyfish Handmade Pipe – Semi-Bent Semi-Rusticated with Acrylic Stem

Valbruna is the brand under which Simone Gaudenzi crafts Italian handmade pipes distinguished by a strong aesthetic identity and meticulous construction. Every pipe is entirely handmade, with carefully selected briar, harmonious proportions, and close attention to detail combining to create unique pieces that embody the finest Italian artisan tradition.

The Rusticata 2 Jellyfish grading identifies a pipe that highlights the contrast between rusticated surfaces and smooth areas, showcasing the quality of the briar and the precision of the craftsmanship.

This model features a classic semi-bent shape, appreciated for its balance of elegance, comfort, and practicality. The rusticated finish, completed in a deep black stain, gives character to the bowl and shank while providing a pleasant tactile feel in the hand.

Creating an elegant contrast are the smooth rim and the smooth flat stand-up base, both of which enhance the natural grain of the briar while allowing the pipe to stand upright when set down.

The black acrylic saddle stem offers durability, color stability, and comfort while smoking. The top of the stem is embellished with the distinctive sterling silver Jellyfish logo.

The result is a harmonious, well-balanced pipe with plenty of character, where the interplay between smooth and rusticated surfaces highlights the quality of its handcrafted workmanship. A creation by Simone Gaudenzi that interprets the Italian handmade pipe tradition with a contemporary style.
