Sandblasted Straight Dublin Sasieni Pipe (Army Mount)

The sandblasted Dublin Sasieni pipe is a refined interpretation of a great classic. Characterized by a slender silhouette, it combines the iconic flared truncated-cone shape with the practicality of an army mount, embellished with a horn insert.

Technical Specifications and Design

- Dublin Shape and Lightness: The classic line of the Dublin, with its bowl flaring slightly upward, lends natural elegance and excellent handling. The overall structure is slender and particularly lightweight.
- Sandblasted Finish and Horn Ring: The deep sandblasting highlights the natural grain of the briar while offering a firm, pleasant grip. The shank features an army mount finished with a natural horn ring, an element that combines strength and sophistication.
- Long Straight Ebonite Stem: The extended length of the stem helps keep smoke away from the face. Made of ebonite, it features the classic fishtail termination.
- Medium-Capacity Bowl: The medium-capacity chamber with regular cylindrical drilling ensures a steady airflow and an even smoke.

Included Accessories

The pipe comes with a practical protective pipe pouch, embellished with an embossed Sasieni logo, ideal for storing or transporting the instrument with the utmost care.
