The Chacom Maigret Morta 1201 pipe combines French pipemaking heritage with the unique properties of ancient semi-fossilized timber. Shaped in a iconic Straight Billiard geometry (shape code 1201), it offers the classic, generous bowl proportions inspired by Inspector Maigret's famous pipes. Crafted from Morta (bog oak preserved underground for thousands of years), it displays a striking natural charcoal-dark hue, high heat tolerance, and neutral smoking characteristics. The straight shank connects smoothly to a durable black acrylic mouthpiece engineered for long-lasting shine.
