The Dunhill Shell Briar 4134 Group 4 pipe represents the pinnacle of classic British pipemaking heritage. Carved to Group 4 proportions under the iconic 4134 shape designation, it features a timeless straight Brandy silhouette, highlighted by a gently flared conical bowl that narrows slightly toward the rim. The famous Shell Briar finish—pioneered by Alfred Dunhill—showcases a deep, dark sandblasting technique that exposes the striking ring-grain texture of the briar while enhancing heat dissipation. The straight shank transitions seamlessly into a hand-fitted straight black ebonite

mouthpiece, inlaid with the world-renowned White Spot.
