Caminetto Event Skin 2019 Pipe

We present an example of great historical and collectible interest: the Caminetto Event Skin 2019. This pipe embodies the essence of Italian manufacturing tradition and the constant pursuit of stylistic innovation that distinguishes Caminetto production.

The Event Series: Historical Tradition and Authorial Reinterpretation

Within the world of Italian artisanal pipes, Caminetto Event pipes occupy a place of distinction, as they represent the brand's response to the concept of the “Pipe of the Year.” Launched in 2013, this annual series originated from an idea by Tommaso “Tommy” Ascorti, grandson of Giuseppe “Peppino” Ascorti, one of the historical founders of the manufactory.

The philosophy behind the line lies in a constant dialogue between past and present:

Drawing from the Archives: Each year, Tommaso Ascorti selects a historical shape from the book of original designs belonging to his grandfather Peppino.

Contemporary Reinterpretation: This is not a simple philological reproduction, but rather a modern reinterpretation that updates period shapes to adapt them to the tastes and needs of contemporary smokers.

The Copper Signature: The distinctive feature and common thread throughout the entire collection is the use of copper — in the form of a ring or decorative ferrule — which creates a strong visual and conceptual connection between the various annual editions.

Each Event edition therefore tells a different chapter of Caminetto’s historical memory, making the collection a fascinating journey for every enthusiast.

Aesthetic Analysis and Construction Details

Stand-up Full Bent Architecture: The 2019 edition features a distinctly curved Stand-up shape (full bent). This geometry provides excellent weight balance during smoking, reducing strain on the jaw, and allows the pipe to remain upright when placed on a flat surface.

The “Skin” Finish and Smooth Rim: The semi-rusticated finish gives the briar surface a pleasant tactile texture and greater resistance to scratches. Contrasting with the rusticated texture of the body, the flat rim crowning the bowl has been left smooth, enhancing the wood’s warm color and natural grain.

Bowl and Mechanics: The chamber offers good capacity, making it ideal for medium-to-long smoking sessions. The expertly executed cylindrical drilling ensures a regular draw and an even combustion of the tobacco from beginning to end.

Copper Ferrule and Stem: At the junction between the shank and stem, the characteristic copper ferrule stands out as a symbolic element of the Event series, enhanced by engravings bearing the name of the line and the year 2019 on the two sides. The black acrylic stem ends in a classic fishtail button, designed to provide a comfortable resting point between the teeth.

Collectible Value

The Caminetto Event Skin 2019 is an extremely versatile and sturdy pipe, ideal both for everyday use and for enhancing a collection dedicated to the brand's annual editions. The original contrast between the semi-rusticated finish and the smooth rim, combined with the practicality of the curved stand-up shape, makes it an example of great character and elegance.
