The Chacom L'Essard 80 pipe is a bold, refined showcase of traditional French pipemaking from the historic Saint-Claude workshop. Identified by the classic 80 shape classification, it embodies the iconic straight Bulldog posture, featuring a sharp diamond-section shank and a faceted conical bowl encircled by signature twin grooves. The deep black sandblasted finish exposes a rich, tactile grain texture while helping to dissipate heat efficiently during use. Highlighting the junction between the briar shank and the straight black acrylic mouthpiece is a bright metal band, adding a sleek contemporary accent to the rustic briar.
