The Ken Dederichs Freehand Semi-Bent Black Sandblasted pipe is a striking artisan creation featuring a bold, contemporary design. Hand-carved by Ken Dederichs, a talented Japanese pipemaker based in Germany, it takes shape as a dynamic freehand semi-bent architecture designed to complement the natural grain and contours of the briar block. The black semi-sandblasted finish creates a captivating tactile contrast. The shank is finished with a functional army mount fitting, pairing seamlessly with a semi-bent black ebonite mouthpiece for easy maintenance and a secure fit.
