The Big Ben Golden Root 108 Tan 9mm Filter pipe is an elegant, well-balanced classic from the renowned Dutch maker. Designated by shape code 108, it follows the timeless architecture of a straight Billiard, featuring a well-proportioned cylindrical bowl and lightweight handling. The smooth Tan finish coats the briar in a warm amber stain, polished to showcase the wood's natural grain structure. Enhancing the shank junction is a refined polished brass ring, providing a sleek metallic accent before transitioning into the straight black acrylic stem, internally engineered for a 9mm filter. Practical, elegant, and durable.
