The Talamona Elegant Virginia 636 pipe is a refined creation with a bold, classic character, combining traditional Italian pipe-making with modern style. Sculpted in the iconic architecture of a bent Bulldog shape, it features the characteristic double-cone bowl accented by twin perimeter ring engravings and a sharp diamond-shaped shank. The Elegant Virginia finish coats the briar in a rich smooth stain, polished to accentuate the natural wood grain. Ensuring outstanding comfort while clenching is the gentle bend of the shank, leading into a durable bent black acrylic mouthpiece.
