The Peder Jeppesen Ida 4 Pot pipe is an expressive example of modern Danish pipemaking, hand-crafted by master artisan Peder Jeppesen. Sculpted into the sturdy, ergonomic lines of a semi-bent Pot shape, it features a broad, squatted bowl with thick briar walls that promote a cool and even burn. The body is finished in a semi-rusticated style matched with a rusticated rim on top of the bowl, delivering a unified tactile feel and rugged visual depth. Providing a striking contemporary contrast is a colorful acrylic accent ring on the shank, leading into a semi-bent black acrylic mouthpiece designed for light and comfortable clenching.
