L'Anatra dalle Uova d'Oro – Sandblasted Standup Poker

This handcrafted Italian L'Anatra dalle Uova d'Oro pipe was made in Pesaro and offers a free interpretation of the Poker shape, developed according to a contemporary vision of the classic pipe. Its sit-up configuration and balanced proportions define its functional design, while the forward-slanted bowl lends a streamlined, modern character to the shape.

Indeed, the bowl leans forward—a choice that visually lightens the silhouette and enhances the fluid line from shank to bowl. While keeping the structural concept of a Poker, this interpretation departs from traditional geometry through a more dynamic, personal line.

The surface features a well-defined sandblast that reveals a captivating natural grain pattern. This finish highlights the briar's structure, giving the pipe a textured surface rich in depth, particularly when catching the light.

The shank-to-stem transition is embellished with a silver band, introducing a refined detail without disrupting the clean layout. The acrylic stem features a tapered profile and a subtle fishtail bit, matching the sleek character of the shape.

Thick walls surround a medium-capacity chamber crafted with cylindrical drilling. The bowl's stoutness and overall proportions create a solid presence, while maintaining a contemporary, well-balanced look.

Additionally, the sit-up configuration allows the pipe to rest securely on its base, adding practical convenience to this distinct Poker interpretation.
