A handcrafted pipe made in Italy by L'Anatra dalle Uova d'Oro, a renowned Pesaro-based manufacturer celebrated for the quality of its craftsmanship and its distinctive aesthetic style. This medium-sized curved pipe is distinguished by its compact, well-proportioned lines, designed to provide excellent ergonomics and a pleasant tactile experience when held.

Key Features

Finish and Silver Details:

The bowl is enhanced by a delicate sandblasted finish, a type of craftsmanship that respects the natural character of the briar while bringing out the wood grain through light, harmonious relief. A particularly prominent feature is the substantial worked silver accent ring fitted to the shank, which adds strong visual character and elegantly defines the transition between the briar and the stem.

Stem:

Made of polished black acrylic with a tapered profile, the stem ends in a slightly fishtail button, designed to provide comfort and stability when clenched. A distinctive silver duck head stands out on the upper side of the stem, serving as the hallmark and identifying symbol of the brand.

Bowl Chamber:

The tobacco chamber offers good capacity and features a slightly tapered drilling towards the bottom.
