The Chacom L'Essard 297 pipe is an elegant rendering of the classic straight Canadian silhouette, crafted in Saint-Claude by France's legendary pipe manufacturer. Defined by its signature long, flattened oval shank paired with a short stem, this architecture provides an extended smoke path that ensures a remarkably cool and dry draft. The briar features a rich black sandblasted finish, bringing out tactile ring-grain patterns. Providing a sophisticated contemporary highlight is a polished metal ring, creating a bright accent before meeting the durable straight black acrylic mouthpiece. A slender, beautifully proportioned pipe designed for enthusiasts of timeless straight shapes.
