The Ser Jacopo Imago L1 B Bent Freehand pipe is a distinctive creation from the world-renowned Pesaro workshop. Sculpted into an organic bent freehand posture, it flows naturally along the grain of the briar to offer balanced, comfortable ergonomics. The defining highlight of this model is the signature Imago mounting: two identical, finely crafted sterling silver bands mounted in mirror reflection—one on the shank end and the other on the base of the bent black acrylic mouthpiece. This symmetrical silver junction creates a refined architectural contrast, making this artisan creation a standout addition for discerning collectors.
