The Sasieni 4 Dot Walnut Root Army Mount pipe combines classic British styling with a traditional military-style shank construction. Finished in the renowned Walnut Root stain, its smooth surface showcases a warm, rich grain pattern inherent to high-grade briar. Sculpted into a straight posture, it features an army mount junction reinforced by a natural horn ferrule, providing a smooth transition between the wood and the mouthpiece. Completing this refined creation is a tapered straight black acrylic stem, adorned with the historic four blue dots that denote Sasieni's signature line.
