The Peder Jeppesen Ida 4 pipe highlights Danish artisan craftsmanship through a design that honors the raw material. Carved into an ergonomic semi-bent posture, it features a pristine smooth finish showcasing the natural briar grain along the bowl walls. The defining element of this piece is its top rim, crafted with an organic bark top (natural plateau) finish that leaves the raw texture of the briar block intact, providing a striking visual contrast against the polished body. Completing the composition is a durable semi-bent black acrylic mouthpiece.
