The L'Anatra Free Form pipe showcases the imaginative design and technical finesse of the Pesaro school of pipemaking. Carved into a straight free form posture, it follows the natural contours of the briar to yield an organic, hand-sculpted silhouette. A defining structural feature is its oval shank, providing a substantial visual presence and comfortable handling. The bowl is rendered in a deep sandblasted finish that brings the natural growth ring patterns of the briar into rich tactile relief. Completing the creation is a durable straight black acrylic mouthpiece, adorned with the iconic silver duck emblem.
