Ganci Stand-Up Chubby: Ligurian Craftsmanship in Natural Briar and Olive Wood

In the heart of Liguria, Francesco Ganci creates handcrafted smoking pipes that combine respect for tradition with a search for distinctive, ergonomic shapes. This creation by Ganci highlights the natural beauty of wood through clean lines, generous proportions and a strong emphasis on practical functionality.

Design and Geometry: Chubby Silhouette and Stand-Up Function

The pipe features a bent profile and a distinctive formal character.

Chubby Shape: The generously proportioned bowl gives the pipe a compact, robust silhouette, characteristic of the Chubby style. Its substantial shape makes it comfortable to hold and gives it a strong visual presence.

Wide Base with Stand-Up Function: The lower part of the bowl features a broad, flat surface that allows the pipe to stand upright independently on a flat surface, without requiring a pipe stand or additional support.

Natural Smooth Finish: The surface reveals exceptionally clean briar, finished naturally to highlight the original grain pattern and clarity of the wood, without concealing the quality of the raw material.

Construction Details: Olive Wood Ferrule and Ebonite Stem

The junction between the shank and stem is enhanced by a harmonious combination of natural materials.

Generous Olive Wood Ferrule: The end of the shank features a substantial ferrule made of olive wood, an explicit reference to the landscape and Mediterranean vegetation of Liguria. When the stem is fitted, the ferrule blends smoothly with the shank, creating an elegant visual transition with warm golden grain patterns.

Black Ebonite Stem: Crafted from quality black ebonite, the stem is finished with a fishtail bit, designed to provide a slim, stable and comfortable resting point between the teeth.

Tobacco Chamber Geometry and Smoking Performance

Slightly Conical Tobacco Chamber: Despite the generous external proportions of the bowl, the pipe features a medium-capacity tobacco chamber, suitable for a well-balanced tobacco load.

Precision Drilling: The slight taper towards the bottom of the chamber helps direct airflow during the final stages of the smoke, contributing to a consistent draw and an even, dry tobacco burn.
