The Neerup pipe from the Classic Gr. 2 series, crafted by Danish master Peder Jeppesen, combines traditional Scandinavian shaping with a bold touch of color. Carved into a fluid bent posture, it features a deeply textured sandblasted finish that reveals the rich three-dimensional grain of the briar. Highlighted at the shank junction by a bright metal band, the pipe seamlessly transitions into its standout feature: an eye-catching curved marbled lilac acrylic mouthpiece, whose unique violet swirls give this artisan piece a truly distinct personality.
