The Ser Jacopo pipe from the Historica Senecta S2 series interprets the classic rhodesian shape with bold architectural lines and fine silversmithing. Built on a clean straight posture featuring a biconical bowl encircled by signature twin horizontal grooves and a diamond-shaped shank, it showcases a deep reddish-brown sandblasted finish that brings out the natural grain ridges. The shank, stamped with official hallmarks on its smooth underside, is accented by an ornate silver band with floral relief work and side engravings, transitioning smoothly into a faceted straight black acrylic mouthpiece inlaid with the silver 'J' emblem.
